 Office 365

Why do you need Cloud IT?

Networks

Cheaper and no need for your in-house server

Starts at £15 per user per month (includes support)

Fast for both mobile and in-house users

Company files are always on your computer and available 365/24/7 (you don't need an internet connection, either)

Easy to use

Outlook looks just like it did before Opening your files happens the same way it used to The magic is all in the background and you won't notice any of it

Internet

Doesn't age

No more in-house server so no hardware or software to upgrade

Back-up

Worry-free

Power and internet outages, earthquakes, floods, meteorites, nukes or communist dictatorships cannot affect the ALWAYS ON availability of your Cloud IT

Cloud IT services

Email

If you are currently using Windows Small Business Server or Microsoft Exchange for email, post migration your Outlook will look and feel just like it did before. Outlook is now connected to our online Cloud service. Of course you will not notice any of this.

File sharing

Your company file folder will look just like a folder on your computer, but the files are sitting directly on your PC, mobile or tablet and you can access them instantly, wherever you have the internet – even when you are on holiday. When you change a file, it is instantly changed – via the internet – on all other company computers. If the internet is not available, the changes will happen when you are back online.

Line of business applications

Perhaps you have a line of business application which runs from your server, and are wondering what happens to it when you move to the Cloud?

Nearly all software providers offer Cloud solutions for their applications. But if they don't, we will gladly work with them to figure out a solution.
